Issue 40
May 7, 2020

This issue is all about Zoom-ing in on our fellowship!

Getting some face time!

Over the past few weeks, the “new normal” has become meeting online for Sunday morning and midweek services, as well as other meetings between times, from prayer times and devotionals to discipling times and virtual get-togethers of all kinds. Since we usually meet with one or two groups but don’t get to see all the brothers and sisters we would ordinarily see at church, we thought everyone might welcome the opportunity to see our different groups as we look onscreen at our various family group or ministry group meetings. The photographic skills might vary, but the heart of our fellowship comes through pretty well 😊 so we ask you not to look critically but to enjoy seeing one another’s faces again! Here we go—

Campus

With many thanks to Sherry Rouse for the idea, and to all the family group leaders who sent these pictures in!

The Emmett group

The Francis group at midweek

The Latino ministry on Easter (with a couple of special guests, the Dobles and the Trejos!)

Young single professionals

The McCurdy/Menefee group

Michelle Carvalho notes, "Kat, Justice and Victor Agolory had to evacuate Zambia while Simon stayed to work alongside the World Health Organization to prevent/slow the spread of COVID-19 in Zambia. So some of the Agolory's are joining us now as they're back in Stone Mountain. We've also had family and friends visit from other parts of the U.S., including Washington D.C., Florida, and Recife, Brazil."

The Muriithi group

The McGarr group

The Jones group

The Parks group

The Moton group

The Sample group

Allison Collier harnessed technology to serve the Kingdom, blending voice and music tracks recorded by different music ministry participants in their own homes to create several beautiful songs to enhance our online worship on Easter Sunday. Huge thanks to her and to everyone who took part, and we look forward to more of their talented collaborations in the coming weeks!

We welcome news and pictures on interesting personal stories, family group activities, and more. Please send them to Nancy Berry, nberry2@gmail.com. Thank you!
